RUFUS KING & CO.

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5, 1857.

A statement in the Herald, a day or two ago, from Washington, that the Supreme Court of the U. S. had decided or would decide against the constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise, excited no little sensation here, but upon further investigation the report proved to be unfounded. There has been no decision, and it is confidently believed there has not even been any formal consultation as yet among the Justices of that Court upon that question. As the rumor, nevertheless, was put forth with a show of authority, it may very probably have been a device of the slave power for feeling the pulse of the country on this point, and ascertaining thus indirectly, if possible, how far it might be safe for the Supreme Court to go in upholding this new and preposterous ground, that the prohibition of Slavery, in regions where it does not exist, can be unconstitutional. The free States, I cannot doubt, on this point are awake, and whenever that issue shall be plainly put to them, will determine that Freedom and not Slavery is the foundation of the republic, and the spread of Freedom, and not of Slavery, the office of its Constitution and of all rightful legislation under it.

Our New York Legislature will commence its session to-morrow, under a republican Governor, and with a large republican majority in the Assembly. In the Senate, by reason of those holding over, there is no distinct majority of any party, but in behalf of Freedom the voice of the State will not be doubtful. It is believed that the Governor's message will embody a recommendation of aid to relieve the physical sufferings of the people of Kansas, and no appeal can well be better founded, as I fear no aid can be more needed, for in the precarious condition in which labor, property and life have been in that territory, all the usual precaution and foresight that provide in the sunshine for the chills and wants of winter, have perforce been rendered inoperative. I have faith that Kansas will be a free State—but it is not to be without much tribulation and bitter privations yet to be endured and triumphed over. The helping hand and sympathizing heart of New York, with those of other States, will, I hope, contribute to repair in part these privations, and strengthen the resolve of those gallant sons of Liberty who have thus striven so manfully against oppression and misrule.

Congress, now that the holidays are over, will go to work; their time is short and much is to be done. Much will be done, but whether of the right sort, or in the right way, remains to be seen. The [illegible] of the Treasury tempts to any sort of speculation, and when the prize is so large and the average of honesty no greater, to say the least, than usual among the members of Congress, it will hardly be but that a good deal of plunder will be authorized. I most earnestly desire some legislation of the proper sort, in favor of a Rail Road to the Pacific. No subject and no project before Congress, and over which it may rightfully exercise control, can compare in importance, in my judgment, with such a Railroad, alike in its social, commercial and political aspects. If the subject could be approached and discussed and decided upon its merits, there could not be any doubt, I must think, as to the result. But unhappily that seems impossible.—The jealousy equally with the poverty of Slavery resists a northern or central line. The common care, common interests and common duty, as well as the matured wealth and prosperity of the Free States, must resist a line through a Southern slave-cultivated and miasma-breeding region—miasma physically and politically fatal. Then the outsiders of Congress—the jobbers—who look at every project before they body only in the point of its money-value to them—they will only consent to legislation that shall leave a large margin for their operations, and although not recognized by the Constitution, their assent to a bill in its initiatory steps, and in its progress, is often as essential to its success as that of the President after it shall have passed both Houses. I hope, but doubtingly, for a Pacific Rail Road bill. Another grand world-wide undertaking should receive the sanction and assistance of the government, that of laying the Trans-Atlantic telegraph wire, by which Europe and America may converse hour by hour, as this city and yours now do. Such a wire, placed, as Prof. Lieber says in some glowing stanzas on the subject here recently, placed under guardianship of "the nations' law," would indeed be a miracle of power and beneficence. Let not this Republic hold back when the Royalty of England and its navy have taken such a liberal interest and share. What a record for the year 1857 and the American Congress of that year, that "it had laid a cable beneath the waves of the Atlantic, from the new to the old world, and that it had laid the track from the Atlantic to the Pacific, by which the iron horse, starting from the shores of the one would swiftly rush to bathe himself in the waves of the other." We can do it. Shall we not?

The Wisconsin Banks.

☞ We presume the banking laws of Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin are as well guarded as would be any act passed by the Legislature of Michigan; yet we see what miserable affairs they are, and what an unsafe currency is furnished in pursuance of them. The example of these States, instead of inviting us to follow, is a warning to beware of the rock upon which they are likely to split.—Detroit Free Press.

The Free Press, in searching for arguments against a General Banking Law for Michigan, is altogether too indiscriminate. Whatever the Banking Laws of Indiana and Illinois may be—and they certainly do furnish opportunities of swindling the public which ought to be checked at once by proper legislation—no such objections can fairly be made against our law. The Detroit Advertiser says in reply to the Free Press:

The Wisconsin banks are in a great degree as safe as the banks of New York, and safer than the New England Banks. But because they are safe in Wisconsin, they are not at par here, because it costs a discount on their face to send them back to be redeemed, and some one has to pay that expense.

Genuine bills on Wisconsin banks are absolutely safe as anything in the way of the indispensable substitutes for gold and silver can be made. There is no loophole that has yet been found, in our law, for fraud, and of the two banks which have thus far failed, every cent of the circulation has been redeemed from the securities required by law to be placed in the Comptroller's hands.

☞ FAILURE.—The failure of David J. McCurdy & Co., extensive dry goods jobbers in Federal Street, Boston, is announced. Liabilities stated to be upward of half a million dollars.

Hard Hits.

Senator Wilson's speech on the President's message is one of the most scathing things we ever read. During its delivery he was interrupted by Mr. Rusk, of Texas, who, among other things remarked that he had "frequently expressed the conviction which was on his mind, that all the hue and cry about slavery is raised, not by the people of the North, not by the mechanics, not by the hard-fisted farmers, but by disappointed politicians who desire to get into office on a sectional issue." He also, applied the term "fanatics" to those who are opposing slavery extension. Mr. Wilson replied as follows:

"I hope the Senator from Texas, and those who act with him, will disabuse their minds right speedily of that idea. Cast your eye over the North; take New England, with her one hundred and fifty thousand popular majority against your candidate; take the great State of New York; take the whole line of Northern States; and when you look at them, remember that we have a large plurality in all of them, except in a portion of them included within about forty thousand square miles of territory, and that we intend to burn over in the next four years. I allude to eastern and central Pennsylvania, southern Indiana, southern Illinois and a small portion of New Jersey. There we mean to change the opinion, and have it well and clearly defined and understood. The rest of the North is sure. If you believe that the people are fanatics, or that their leaders deceive them, remember one thing, that in 1850 there were in the United States nearly eight hundred thousand free persons above twenty-one years of age who could not read or write. Only ninety-four thousand out of this eight hundred thousand happen to live in the States which Fremont has carried. Remember another thing, that the State of Massachusetts, which you consider so ultra—a people so easily deluded—prints within a few thousand and circulates more newspapers within the States, than all the fifteen southern States of the Union.—Remember they have more volumes in their public libraries than all the slave States. Remember they give away more money to the Bible and Missionary and other benevolent societies every year than the entire slaveholding States; and they have done so during the last quarter of a century.

WHO CAUSES THE INSURRECTIONS.—The Richmond, Va., Administration paper of Dec. 30, says; "We believe that all the Insurrectionary movements at the South, are the naturally and necessary effect of the course pursued by the Democratic Party in the late canvass. And, what is more, we believe that all the blood which has been shed by the whites in self-defence, in some portions of the country, rests upon the heads of the reckless demagogues of the Buchaneer Democracy."

And so say most of the Southern Know Nothing papers; while the Democratic papers lose no time in retorting upon their opponents by charging them with being the cause of the trouble.

Both branches of the Pro-Slavery forces are right. Both used, as their best argument in the campaign, the miserable stuff in the shape of appeals to the people to save the "patriarchal institution," and they must share the responsibility.

Worth Noting for Spring Business—Steamers to Portland.

The Portland State of Maine announces that the line of steamers, long in contemplation, as a means of effecting a direct transit between Portland and Liverpool, is established, and information was received by the last arrival from Europe, to the effect that plans have been matured and arrangements made for the maintenance of the line, commencing on the 7th of March, with the Circassian, a screw propeller of 2300 tons, having engines of 350 horse power. She will be followed four weeks later by the Khersonese. The trips will be monthly.

This line will be in direct communication with the Grand Trunk Railway, and will afford an outlet for an unprecedented amount of produce, such as wheat, flour and pork, which will seek that outlet to market, especially during the winter months, and also in the spring, before the Erie Canal can be made available.

RACINE AND MISS. R. R. CO.—The Racine Democrat states that the Attorney of this Company has brought before the Common Council of Racine, which, as representing the city corporation, is largely interested in the stock, charges of mismanagement of the Company's affairs by the President. The Democrat says:

The Attorney wound up his speech by declaring his readiness to prove what he alleged. The gentleman against whom the charges stand, is absent from the city, and so, of course, we cannot say what the nature of his defence will be. That he will have one, and a sound one, is the opinion of large numbers of our people.

We think that the favorable result of the investigation sought for, as suggested by the Democrat, will be fully expected by all who know the President, Mr. DURAND.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANIES.—The West Bend Democrat has the following notice of two of our Wisconsin Insurance Companies. The "HOME," of this city, as well as the Franklin, deserves all the good things said of it, which are many. Our people, here and throughout the State, perceive and act upon the good policy of insuring in home companies, whose managers and whose standing they know:

ARE YOU INSURED?—If not, get the agent of some good, responsible insurance company to make a survey of your premises, and procure a policy immediately. Messrs. Cook & Elliott, of Barton, whose new flouring mill was destroyed by fire last fall, have received every cent for which it was insured; $600 from the Home Insurance Co., Milwaukee, and $1,500 from the Franklin Insurance Co., of Fond du Lac. The promptness with which these two Companies pay their losses, is a recommendation that goes along way in their favor with the public.

☞ IMPORTANT TO THE OWNERS OF STEAMBOATS.—The attention of the owners of Steam Passengers Vessels is called to the following resolution, adopted by the Board of Supervising Inspectors at their annual meeting held at Boston, Oct. 9th, 1856:

Resolved, That Local Inspectors, before they give certificates of inspection, shall require, in all cases where boilers are carried in the hold of steamers, the fire rooms shall be thoroughly lined with sheet iron or other metal, and, whenever practicable, in such a manner as to leave a stratum of air to circulate between the woodwork and lining. They shall also require all woodwork in any degree exposed to ignition from the heat of the boilers smoke pipes or chimneys or any other heated surface, to be well protected by sheet iron or other metal, in such a manner as will satisfy them that there will be no danger from such source. They shall also require in all cas s that means be provided to convey steam from boilers into the hold for the purpose of extinguishing fires when practicable.

☞ The Board of Brokers of New York have adopted a new by-law requiring deposit on contracts, which will be attended with very useful consequences, restricting time bargains within bounds. The by-law is as follows:

DEPOSIT ON CONTRACTS.—In any time bargain made at the Board, either contracting party may require of the other to make a deposit of not more than ten per cent, as security for the fulfilment of the contract, and notice of such requirement shall be given on or before 2 o'clock P. M. On contracts made at the second board, such notice shall be given on or before 10 A. M. on the day of such notice, the party calling shall report the same to some officer or the Board, whose duty it shall be to repurchase or sell the same without commission, and collect any difference that may accrue, and pay it over to the party entitled thereto.

☞ The Boston Courier, of Dec. 31, says:—"Charles T. Congdon, Esq., who has edited the Boston Atlas during the past two years, retires to-day from the office with a view of taking a chair in editorial department of the New York Tribune."

LADIES' TEMPERANCE LEAGUE.—We learn from the Richland Co. Observer that 72 ladies of Richland Centre have pledged themselves not to purchase goods at any store where ardent spirits are sold.

☞ During the month of December, the coinage at the U. S. Mint in Philadelphia, amounted to $424,536,28 of which $249,529,72 was gold, $175,000 silver, and 32,005,56 copper.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

"Rara Avis" in Terris.

PORTAGE CITY, Jan. 1st, 1857.

EDITORS SENTINEL:—In the form of the day, I wish you a happy New Year, Messrs. Editors of the Sentinel, and all hands, down to the, little Imp of the office. I wish the same to the principles for which you have so manfully battled during the past year. And while I am in a complimentary mood, I will extend my good desires for a happy New Year to the La Crosse R. R., for it landed me almost upon the banks of the Wisconsin, without fear of cold or pinchings of a January day. With Sancho Panza, in his eulogy upon sleep, I say, "blessed be the man who invented" Railroads. I find progress here and prospective growth, yes for a New Years, day and Eve., parties, balls, &c., seem to be in a Rip Van Winkle state.

Among the strange things about to appear here, in the midst of winter, is a Rare Bird, just pluming itself for flight. I refer to the "Rara Avis," a Musical and Literary Journal, to be issued in about ten days. The idea of such a publication for Wisconsin, is new, and somewhat bold, yet, from the progress, of taste and refinement of which we boast, shall it not succeed?—The Editor, Mr. H. Norton, I know to be a man of musical and literary talent, and who will lend his whole energies to the work. I predict for the Rara Avis a fine rising from its nest, and a sustained flight. In prospect, I wish it a happy New Year.

And if I mistake not, the New Year will bring many new developements in the West and North ern part of our thriving, driving State, of which you will be duly informed.

Yours truly,
EN ROUTE.

State Historical Society.

STATED MEETING, Jan. 6, 1857.

Present, President Smith, Judge Atwood, Mills, Durrie, Calkins, Hunt, Carpenter, Conover, Ilsley, Tibbits, Bull, Powers, Hopkins, Jarvis, Clark and Draper.

Gen. Wm. R. Smith, in the Chair.

Several letters were read by the Secretary—among them one from Hon. G. M. Dallas, stating that, in accordance with the request of the Society, he has obtained a copy of the Record of Publications, in about eighty volumes, from the British Government; and a letter of later date, from N. Trubner, the London publisher, who has courteously acted as the Society's agent in the matter, announces that he has obtained the work from the Rolls Office, boxed and shipped the same to C. B. Norton, the Society's New York agent. This work will prove a valuable addition to the library—the more valuable, as it is not on sale at any price.

Also letters from State Department, Washington, C. B. Norton with reference to book purchases, Prof. G. C. Swallow, Major J. H. Rountree, presenting his portrait, as requested by the Society, S. M. Brookes, C. B. Richardson, Rev. C. D. Bradlee, J. M. Sullivan and James Graham.

The artist, Samuel M. Brookes, was present, the bearer of seven oil paintings, for the Society's Picture Gallery—accurate views of the two battle fields of the Wisconsin Heights and the Bad Ax, 26x36 inches, the former generously presented by Hon. Hiram C. Bull, and the latter was ordered by the Society, also portraits of Gen. Charles Bracken, Major John H. Rountree, Judge James H. Lockwood, Judge M. M. Cothren and Hon. Levi Sterling, presented by these persons respectively—all painted by Messrs. Brookes & Stevenson, of Milwaukee. These fine pictures, accurate views and truthful likenesses, were pronounced by all as most valuable and desirable additions to the Picture Gallery. The historical pictures of memorable scenes in our State, taken almost in the state of nature, and the portraits of several of our well known and honored pioneers, form a most interesting group. The faithful and talented artists deserve, as they receive, the hearty thanks of the Society.

The annual report of the Executive Committee was presented and adopted.

Messrs. A. J. Mackey, Rev. H. F. Rood, J. C. Ford, James Ross, and Byron W. Bowen, were elected active members; and several corresponding members were also chosen. After allowing several accounts, the meeting of the committee adjourned:

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE SOCIETY.

The annual meeting was called to order, immediately on the adjournment of the Executive Committee, a large number of members being present,—the President, Gen. Wm. R. Smith, presiding.

The annual reports of the Executive Committee, Treasurer and Librarian, were submitted and adopted—that of the Executive Committee being referred to the Publication Committee, and that of the Treasurer having been referred to an auditing committee, consisting of Messrs. Hunt, Clark and Draper.

By these reports, it appears that the receipts of the past year, have been $1,206,80, and the expenditures $1,186,73, leaving a balance in the Treasury of $89,557. That the library, which in January 1854, was 20 volumes, had by January 1855 increased to 1,050; in January 1856, to 2,115, and now 3,120—showing an increase the past year of 1005 volumes, and over a thousand volumes per year since the efficient re-organization of the Society, three years since. A large number of maps, engravings, autographs, and curiosities—an increase of eleven oil paintings, making the total number now in the Gallery thirty-three. The past year has been one of continued prosperity to the Society.

Two amendments to the constitution were adopted—one increasing the annual fee of acting members to two dollars; the other constituting the Vice Presidents member of the Executive Committee.

Messrs. Mills, Durrie and Hunt were appointed a committee to report suitable names for officers for the ensuing year—who reported the following, who were unanimously elected:

President—Gen. Wm. R. Smith, of Mineral Point.

Vice Presidents—Hon. James Duane Doty, I. A. Lapham, Gen. A. G. Ellis, Hon. Morgan L. Martin, Gyrus Woodman and Beriah Brown.

Corresponding Sec'y.—Lyman C. Draper.

Recording Sec'y—Dr. John W. Hunt.

Librarian—Daniel S. Durrie.

Treasury—Prof. O. M. Conover,

Curators.

Hon. L. J. Farwell,	Hon. Hiram C. Bull,
Hon. J. P. Atwood,	Hon. Simeon Mills,
Hon. D. G. Powers,	Col. David Atwood,
B. F. Hopkins,	S. H. Carpenter,
E. A. Calkins,	Julius T. Clark,
Wm. B. Jarvis,	Edward Ilsley,
F. G. Tibbits,	Horace Rublee,
H. E. Lawrence,	Rev. Henry F. Bond,
S. V. Shipman.	C. T. Flowers.

Messrs. Ilsley Mills and Clark were appointed a committee of arrangements for the Annual Address by Hon. E. G. Ryan, which, it is understood will take place on Wednesday evening, the 4th of February, ensuing, at the Baptist Church.

The meeting then adjourned.—Madison Argus.

The Senator.

The Republican papers, just now very busy in discussing the Senatorial question, name Hon. L. P. Harvey, of this county, as a candidate. The Free Democrat speaks of him as one of those who are "openly in the field, in a proper spirit, soliciting the aid of help to elect them." We have reason for believing that there is not a man in the State who has been "solicited," either directly or indirectly, by Mr. Harvey for aid to elect him. Many persons to whom disinterested service in politics is a mystery, have construed that gentleman's Herculean labors as chairman of a State Central Committee, into a desire to be a prominent candidate for United State Senator. He, however, has never entertained the idea of being a candidate, and has so expressed himself when aproached on the subject by his friends. His services have been freely given to aid in securing a triumph of our principles, and without any view to, or expectation of political preferment. We have made this mention upon our own responsibility, with the sole view to relieve some of our contemporaries of needless discussion.—Janesville Free Press.

The Blue Ridge of Virginia Tunneled.

The Blue Ridge Tunnel was finally carried through the mountain last week. On Monday morning the augurs appeared from either side, not more than half an inch apart, and the perforation was complete. The Stanton Spectator says:

"So accurately has been all the calculations made by Col. Crozer, that the augur holes from both ends of the Tunnel were only half an inch distance from each other, when they met, and the difference in the length of the Tunnel, as computed by measurement on the outside, over the top of the mountain, and as accurately measured inside, after the perforation, was less than six inches. The draft at the perforation is strong enough to extinguish a light on the eastern side."

THE WINTER AT BEAVER DAM.—It is now fine winter weather, and capital sleighing in this vicinity. The streets are crowded with sleds loaded with wood, hay, pork and grain, and all is bustle and stir, in our little city. The sleighbells are jingling early and late, and the ladies and gents with their fancy sleighs, buffalo robes, and fast steeds are skipping along the snow-paths in every direction. All seem to be healthy, and full of life, hilarity, and glee.—Sentinel.

DIRGE

To the memory of Miss Ellen Gee, of Kew, who died in consequence of being stung in the eye by a Bee.

Peerless yet hopeless maid of Q,
Accomplished L N G,
Never again shall I and U
Together sip our T.

For ah, the fates, I know not Y,
Sent 'midst the flowers a B,
Which ruthless stung her in the I,
So that she could not O.

L N exclaimed, "Oh spiteful B,
If ever I catch U
Or Jas'mine, rosebud, or sweet P,
I'll change your stinging Q.

I'll send you like a lamb or U
Across the Atlantic C,
From our delightful village Q
To distant O Y E.

A steam runs from my wounded I
Salt as the briny C;
As rapid as the X or Y,
The O I O or D.

Then fare thee well, insensate B,
"Who stung her yet knew Y;
Since not for wealthy Durham's O,
Would I have lost my I."

They beat with tears fair L N G,
In funeral R A;
A clay-cold corse now doomed to E,
While I mourn her D K.

Ye nymphs of Q, then shun each B,
Lest to the reason Y;
For should a B U G at T,

The Financial Centre of the Western World.

The city of New York is the money centre of the Western hemisphere; and Wall Street is the "strong box" of the nation. Let us glance at a few of yesterday's figures as evidence of the credit we claim on the score of financial superiority. In the first place we find that the simple item of Dry Goods imports during the year just closed foots up $93,402,893. The business of the Clearing House yesterday, where the Banks balance their transactions, amounts to $24,863,000. At the Tax Receiver's Office, the receipts on the account of the levy of 1856 amount to $3,202,869, leaving only about $500,000 due. The Ohio Life and Trust Company paid out $1,200,000. The Sub-Treasury paid out about half a million; and Messrs. Duncan, Sherman & Co., probably, a much more. These are magnificent figures, and indicate the almost incalculable amount of business that centres in Wall street, which is annually increasing in a ratio that, if unchecked, will give to our city the fiscal supremacy of the world, before another quarter of a century shall have rolled around. With the whole United States interlaced with railroads, like the bars of a gridiron; with the great highway of the nation completed (as it must inevitably be) connecting the Atlantic and Pacific shores; with a bridge of steamers spanning all the distance from New York to Liverpool; and telegraph wires, like "nerves of sensation," putting us in constant communication with all the capitals of the World, the increase, expansion and power of this great commercial metropolis of the West will far exceed the calculations of the most sanguine speculators. In the vague, yet suggestively hopeful language of Scripture: "It doth not yet appear what we shall be;" and, barring accidents (such as War, foreign or domestic, the great calamity, which foolish Nations bring upon themselves; or Plague, or Famine, which sometimes are sent in punishment of their sins, as fire and brimstone were rained upon Sodom,) the prosperity of this country is almost beyond a poet's computation.

With all the resources of the Earth at our command, in climate, soil, mineral treasures, lakes, rivers, oceans; and with all the energy, talent, skill and art of the world to develope and fabricate the materials at our hands—there is nothing in the shape of competition that we may not challenge, nor any sort of triumph that we may not achieve. We ask no "odds" in the shape of protective tariffs; and if all the ports in all the civilized world, were thrown open to us to-day, and every Custom House converted into a School House, the people of the United States would be the largest gainers by the operation. These sanguine predictions may make the "Bears" growl a little; but let him gainsay them who can. The western horizon is clear and bright; and the sun of 1856 has made a golden set, betokening a goodly day to-morrow. Let us hope and pray.—N. Y. Mirror.

A Southern Incendiary.

At the late Southern Commercial Convention, a speech was made by Mr. Albert Pike, of Arkansas, of which the following is an extract:

"The framers of the Constitution did not mean to give any color to the idea that a slave was a mere chattel; they meant to recognize him as having a soul, and to encourage the master to raise him in the scale of civilization, until in Gods good time, he should be fit to be free. He believed that every slaveholder must desire that, in God's good providence, the time would come when every man on earth would be free if he was fit to be free. (Much applause.")

A "true regard for the interests of the south" unquestionably demands that Mr. Pike should be banished to some Siberia, north of Massachusetts and Dixon's line. He is more dangerous than farmer Underwood, the Mobile bookseller, or the North Carolina Professor, who have been recently expelled from slavedom, for he is a man of wealth, high standing, eminent ability and great popularity. Of course his expulsion would be a difficult matter, but that only proves the more its necessity. Some hot-heads, it is true, immediately rebuked him for the sentiment above quoted; but Mr. Pike defended and repeated its expression, exclaiming, "If that be treason make the most of it," and was again greeted with great applause. Dangerous man is Mr. Pike. Turn him out.—Buffalo Republic.

AID FOR KANSAS.—The New England Kansas Aid Committee, through their secretary, S. N. Clifford, Esq., give notice that they have received $30,675 99, and have expended $36,093 94. A detailed report will be furnished hereafter.—They assure the contributors that their generous gifts have been faithfully applied to the relief and defense of the free state men of Kansas, and say that the latest accounts from the Territory afford good reason to believe that the immediate and pressing necessities of the free settlers have been relieved, and that tranquility has been restored. They, therefore, recommend that all efforts to obtain funds be suspended, and that monies now remaining in the hands of Associations and Committees be forwarded to the Committee, who will continue their organization and hold the funds until they learn whether the present happy state of affairs is likely to continue.—They think that Kansas can now be best served by investments in land and labor, and they recommend the Emigrant Aid Society as the best means of permanently building up the true interests of the Territory. They also recommend loans to poor men who have improved their land, but who are unable to enter their claims, and also that application be made to the Legislature or fund which may be used in case an exigency shall arise, and which will serve to encourage the Free State men of Kansas.—Boston Telegraph, 3d inst.

COLONEL BENTON TRAPPED.—Old Bullion in his letter to the National Intelligencer, correcting certain errors in the printed report of his speech delivered at the New England dinner at the Astor House, says he never used the word lady, that "it is not in any Greek or Roman book, is not in the Bible," and is not used in his "Thirty Years in the Senate." We cannot answer for the first or the last, but as for the Bible, an editor who is "up" in Scripture pins the Senator in this wise:

Colonel Benton would seem to be a good deal out of his reckoning, so far as the use of the word LADY in the Bible, as shown by the following extracts:

Judges 5, 29: Her wise ladies answered her.

Esther 1, 18: Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the King's Princes, which have heard of the deed of the Queen.

Isaiah 47, 5: Sit thou silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldean; for thou shalt no more be called the lady of the kingdom.

Isaiah 47, 7: And thou saidst I shall be a lady forever.

2 John, 1: The elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love in the truth.

2 John, 5: And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee.

STATISTICS OF SHIPWRECKS.—The Register of the British Board of Trade enumerates the wrecks of 1141 ships during 1855, of which 400 were totally lost. Of the whole number 963 were British, 11 colonial, and 116 foreign. The greatest number of casualties took place in December, namely, 220, and the fewest in June, namely 33. Thirty-four steamships are included in the above record.

STEWART'S ENLARGEMENT.—Messrs. A. T. Stewart, & Co., have purchased seventy-five feet in Chambers and Reade streets, adjoining their present immense store, and will enlarge their establishment to that extent on the first of May. This firm have sold, during the past year, goods to the amount of ten millions of dollars; and the duties paid on them makes a big item in [illegible] income.—N. Y. Mirror.

☞ The National Convention of Locomotive Engineers, composed of Engineers from the various roads of the United States, will meet at the Melodeon to-morrow. They will act, we learn, in regard to their rates of compensation, and discuss other matters immediately concerning their responsibilities, &c.—Cleveland Herald, 6th.

The Schooner Iowa and Barque Ayer.

Mr. Masters, who was in Chicago a few days ago, informs us that a portion of the planks of the bluff of the bow of a sail vessel, with painted ports, had been picked up on the beach near the mouth of the St. Joseph's River, in the same vicinity where the portions of the cabin of the barque Ayer, the Captain's trunk, and some forty feet of her rail came on shore, the 16th of November, seven days after she sailed. These planks, Mr. Masters is well assured, are from the schooner Iowa, which sailed with the Ayer, and has not been seen or heard of since. They have been re-painted twice, which was the case with the Iowa. The surmise that these two vessels collided, is now almost a certainty.—Connected with their simultaneous loss, each by the other's act, is a singular coincidence. The schooner Iowa was built here in 1851, by Peck & Masters, for B. S. Shepard & Co., of Chicago, under the superintendence of Capt. Thomas McClanning, who sailed her till he was transferred to the new barque Ayer, which was built this season by the same builders and for the same owners. These two vessels objects of almost affection to Capt. McClanning, went down at the same time, and he with them. Both were freighted with grain, both sailed from the same port at the same time, for the same destination, and both were beautiful and strong vessels—the barque especially so, having been built with reference to a voyage across the Atlantic.—Cleveland Herald.

DR. C. M. JACKSON—Dear Sir—I have used your Hoofland German Bitters in my family for the past four years, for Liver diseases and Dyspepsia, and am pleased to acknowledge that we have received the greatest benefit from its use. I have recommended it to a great many afflicted with similar diseases; with the same good result.

I have no hesitation in saying that it was an invaluable medicine, and hope you will be able to introduce it into every family in the Union.

The Proposed New City Hospital.

We saw yesterday the elevation and plans of the new City Hospital, which it is proposed to erect upon the grounds in the north part of the 1st Ward. The study of the architect, Mr. DUKESMOND, (who furnished the plans of the "Albany,") has been to prepare plan which should give the best possible accommodations, for the least cost; and although, with this view, a great deal in the way of ordinal finish is necessarily sacrificed, yet the building will present an imposing front. Some degree of finish is, indeed, given by the working of the brick into cornices, &c., but no material expense will be laid out in that way.

The elevation, which may be seen at the Post Office after to-day, shows a front of 228 ft., including the wings, which are each 62 ft. front by 100 in depth. The main building—all that is proposed to be erected at first, and all that will be wanted for some years, is 122 ft. front by 76 ft. in depth, except the central portion, which projects 10 ft. front and rear. The main building is three stories in height, with an ample basement. The wings are intended to have an additional attic story.

The height of the basement story is 10 feet—1st story 14 feet—2d story 14 feet—3d story 13 feet, giving fine airy rooms. The height of the cupola from the ground will be 84 feet. The building when completed according to the full plans, would contain 620 beds for public patients, besides a large number of private rooms; while the main building will accommodate 192 public patients in the several wards, and give quite a number of comfortable rooms for private patients who are likely to resort to the institution for the attendance of experienced nurses.

The basement will contain the kitchen, ranges, hot air furnaces, cellars, with ding rooms, &c.

The 1st story is to contain the physician's office, Medicine room, two wards for public patients, a range of private rooms, and baths, water closets, &c., the last two being provided in each story.

The 2d story has two wards for public patients, besides other rooms, and the apartments for the Sisters of Charity in charge of the Hospital. The third story is mostly for public wards.

Rooms are provided for performing surgical operations—and for the insane, and the building is so arranged that no one department need interfere with or annoy any other.

So far as we are able to judge, the architect has performed his part admirably in the making of these plans; and he thinks that the main building may be erected at a price which shall not much exceed $15,000 to $18,000. It should be understood that the material to be used throughout is the common (not the pressed) brick.

Mr. DULLENBURG'S office is over 228 East Water street, where he will be pleased to give any information as to the details of the plans, which may be seen there.

The Visitors and Collectors are expected to proceed immediately upon the discharge of their reveral duties. The visitors are requested as far as possible to procure employment for those in want, and to obtain homes for destitute children. They will also keep a record in their visitors book of the names and nativity of those assisted the causes of their destitution, the amount and description of the relief given to each applicant—and report to the Secretary, the last day of each month. The Collectors are requested to obtain immediately as large subscriptions as possible in money, food and clothing, and report over the same as fast as collected, the money to the Treasurer, provisions, clothing, &c., to the Secretary (who will act as storekeeper for the Association until further notice) and report every week the amount and value collected to the Secretary, for publication.

The delay of the Association in calling for subscriptions, and granting relief has been owing to the neglect of former officers of the Association in calling the annual meeting, and the difficulty of procuring Visitors and Collectors, which delay we trust will not again occur.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TO THE CITIZENS OF MILWAUKEE
And the Public Generally:

EXPELLED FROM MOBILE, ALABAMA, under the charge of selling incendiary or abolition books, which city I had built up the largest and most profitable book and stationery business on the South. I have escaped my new home in Milwaukee, and entrust my future welfare to the fair peopling of this city. Compelled to remove my stock from Mobile, I have brought it to Milwaukee, and propose to carry on here a FIRST-CLASS

AND
PAPER ESTABLISHMENT!!
Wholesale and Retail.

At Prices which must Prove Satisfactory!
Also, a large variety of
UNIQUE FANCY ARTICLES,
SUITABLE FOR HOLIDAY PRESENTS,
CHRISTMAS, NEW YEAR
AND
BRIDAL GIFTS.

In offering myself as a candidate for a share of public patronage, I would assure the citizens of Wisconsin that I am satisfied, from the unusual inducements I possess in purchasing goods, and with foreign knowledge of business, that it is for their interest to call and examine my goods and prices before purchasing elsewhere.

I have been unable to rent a store large enough for my business before next Spring. I have therefore temporarily located at

No. 200 East Water Street,

Until I can secure a suitable stand.

Merchants from the country, jobbers, and all others buying whole or in bill, are earnestly requested to examine my stock, and ascertain for themselves

WILLIAM STRICKLAND.

To those curious in such matters, I would say that a plain statement of my affairs, from the first book-seller from Mobile, desiring the citizens to see me, is treated the Vigilance Committee, and the way I came to be driven from that city, will be published in a few days, and distributed gratuitously.

WILLIAM STRICKLAND,
Bookseller and Stationer.

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years, I have been engaged in a business, known only to myself, and comparatively few others, whom I have instructed for the sum of $200 each, which, I calculated me at the rate of $2,000 to $3,000 per annum. And having made arrangements to go to Europe on the Fall of 1857, to engage in the same business, I am willing, for a few months, to give full instructions in the art to any one in the United States or Canadas, who will remit the sum of $100. I am induced from the success I have been favored with of late, and the many thankful acknowledgments I have received from those whom I have instructed and who are making from $5 to $10 per day, etc., to any person an opportunity to engage in this business, which is easy, pleasant, and very profitable, at a small cost. There is positively No Humbug in the matter. References of the best class can be given as regards its character. All who have written to me for information in this line, I will testify that I have not deceived them. Those wishing to engage in the business, will please write immediately, as I shall not be in the country after the 15th of January, 1857. Address, post paid,
